ADMISSIONS

Application Staggered Dates

NAIT will continue to use the following application opening dates for applicants applying to begin studies in the 2024-2025 academic year:

- Fall 2024 term: applications will open October 1
- Winter 2025 term: applications will open March 1
- Spring 2025 term: applications will open June 1

Change in Entrance Requirements

NAIT has undertaken an extensive review of entrance requirements for 2024-25, so you may notice that requirements for a number of programs have changed. This review was intended to reduce the complexity in our entrance requirements, while still maintaining the standards for admission that programs require.

We are now also describing our entrance requirements a little differently - we're listing the grade level of a required course first, followed by the minimum Alberta Ed course that would satisfy the entrance requirement. For example:

- The old way would have been to list a Math requirement like this: Math 30-1 or Math 30-2
- The new way is to say: Grade 12 Mathematics (Math 30-2)

We will, of course, continue to accept higher-level or equivalent courses to that minimum course that's listed. This change to how we describe our entrance requirements is intended to be a little more friendly to our applicants from other provinces or countries who may not be as familiar with Alberta Ed courses.

SERVICES AND RESOURCES

NAIT Landing Page for Counsellors

We have placed resources for counsellors, teachers and community organizations on our counsellor landing page, nait.ca/counsellor, to keep you up to date with all things NAIT.

Red Deer Polytechnic's programs are led by expert instructors who care. We offer practical and applied learning opportunities that allow our students to gain experiences for success in their careers and in their lives. Class sizes are small across most programs, which means that students establish meaningful relationships with their instructors and their peers.

- Our post-secondary institution is a public polytechnic institution, recognized by the Government of Canada as a Designated Learning Institution that offers programs eligible for the Post-Graduation Work Permit Program (PGWPP).
- Focus on hands-on learning
- Focus on employability of graduates
- Modern and high-quality facilities
- Fantastic student services, such as Counselling, Academic Supports, and Library Services
- Lower cost of living compared to larger Canadian cities
